EVACUATION OF FURT SUMTER .. SECRET HISTORY. From the Columbia (S. C.) Guardian] STATE OF SOUTH CAROLINA,)

I have every reason, from information received by me in the most confidential manner, because James Buchanan and his associate civilized world, when it is known that the existence as the only certain mode of destroypresident of the United States and his cabinet | ing the Republicanparty." iid so act, and with a view expressly to carry

Major Anderson had officially informed the former administration that he could hold Fort that while the country has been wickedly made Sumter; and, of course, if the object of that to believe that the time of the administration administration was to betray the government fully in aiding to place Mr. Lincoln and his open rebellion against the authority of the govcabinet exactly where they were, and to com-

rulers of any people, except, perhaps, in the days of the French revolution, when history Had war, no shows that wholesale murder was often plauned

One of the chief ends of the article seems to have been the proof of treason on the part of President Buchanan, and through all of it runs the oft-repeated "alternative" left them by into the face of the countile command to starte within fifteen days, or try; and with it, all engaged in this atrocious and lime to how on the proof to not to not one of the countile of the presentation by bim, of "permitting Major Anderson and bis command to starter within fifteen day, or of ignominiously abandoning it to a next of traiters," etc. This "alternative" is dwelt upon as if to direct special attention to it; and this restore, to rebuild and to preserve the government, but his and wery "alternative" proves, above all the rest, the purpose which they had in view when the their sa and orgues and regards who composite to "make was?"—"ho protect the sucred constitution and enforcing the laws, to bring back good men to their aliggiance, and leave of "make was?"—"ho protect the sucred constitution and enforcing the laws, to bring back good men to their aliggiance, and leave of "make was?"—"ho protect the sucred constitution and enforcing the laws, to bring back good men to their aliggiance, and leave of "make was?"—"ho protect the sucred constitution and enforcing the laws, to bring back good men to their aliggiance, and leave of "make was?"—"ho protect the sucred constitution and enforcing the laws, to bring back good men to their aliggiance, and leave of "make was?"—"ho protect the sucred constitution and enforcing the laws, to bring back good men to their aliggiance, and leave of which had to his keeping—and to gain over, by his avowedly peaceful objects, those which his signing the order for the evacuation of Fort Sunter called forth; and it is said, too, that his mission is to reclaim and not extinguished the desired to "discharge his duty to humanity," and yet he has chosen to "discharge his duty to humanity," and yet he has chosen to "discharge his duty to humanity," and yet he has chosen to "discharge his duty to humanity," and yet he has chosen to "discharge his duty to humanity," and yet he has chosen to "discharge his duty to humanity," and yet he has chosen to "discharge his duty to humanity," and yet he has chosen to "discharge his duty to humanity," and yet he has chosen to "discharge his duty to humanity," and yet he has chosen to "discharge his duty to humanity," and yet he has chosen to of Fort Sunter called forth; and it is said, too, that his mission is to reclaim and not extinthat he desired to "discharge his duty is humanity;" and yet he has chosen to "discharge"
That "dutys" in the singular way of resolving on a policy which, in fris own words, he knew would "raise throughout the mighty North a state of the raitors now in rebellion against the government, and to the very existence of Feathers and flowers, arise thereof would "raise throughout the mighty North a the government, and to the very existence of feeling of indignation, which in ninety days swould have emancipated every slave on the meritation of slavery on the American continent, and driven their masters into the continent, and driven their masters into the sea."

The sacrifice was made; Anderson and his command were forced to become liable as victims to finanticism; Fort Sumer was wrapt in finance; for finanticism; Fort Sumer was wrapt in finance; for finance was provided to discharge his duty to bumanity," and that his purpose was "feace"—his aversion "war." His "purpose" was changed, and to the very existence of the institution of slavery on the American continued to the constitution; and by yielding to the necessity of the case and listening to the constitution; and by yielding to the necessity of the case and listening to the constitution; and by yielding to the necessity of the case and listening to the constitution; and by yielding to the necessity of the case and listening to the constitution; and by yielding to the necessity of the case and listening to the constitution; and by yielding to the necessity of the case and listening to the constitution; and by yielding to the necessity of the case and listening to the constitution; and by yielding to the necessity of the case and listening to the part of formation of the United States, and with the service in bars, sheets and richies of clothing or ap Gomes, except mushets, and continued arms of a listing typupose of all kinds, on the state of all kinds, on the state of all kinds of all kinds, lands to the response of all kinds, on the state of all kinds, lands to the war to the collection of the Lulium is to be pulled down, and the ploody banner of pirates, freebooters, rebels and training to the pulled down, and the ploody banner of pirates, freebooters, rebels and training to the pulled down, and the ploody banner of pirates, freebooters, rebels and training to the pulled down, and the ploody banner of pirates, freebooters, rebels and training to the pulled down, and the ploody banner of pirates, freebooters, rebels and training to the pu of our nationality in the eyes of Europe, all demand that we should retain presession of Fort Sumter at any and every sacrifice; and no man in this nation is more deeply impressed with the paramount importance of so doing than is Abraham Lincoln, the president of the United States. He feels and recognizes bis duty in the premises; but the Law of accessity STATE FEMALE steps in, puts at defiance his wishes and his duty, and sternly forbids his attempting to hold or relieve the noble fortress so promptly snatched from the hands of the rebels and traitors of Charleston by the timely action of Major Andelson. Bachana and his irailor eabinet had deliberately planned the robbing of our arganism under the superfishedence of, and with the consivance of the missrable fellow Flayd, whose portrait how knaps so complements by the Rogne's gallery of our city police; and wall know, that when Major Anderson took possession of Fort Sumier, Floyd decayable for the rebels, and Buchanas, actually yielded to the demant, and illustrated with dianger to the person, and finest many actually yielded to the demant, and illustrated with dianger to the person if he wentured upon any such act of tracherty, the yielded to a stem possessity in the court of the c Major Anderson. Buchanan and his traitor that his predecessor had treasonably arranged to make the abandonment of Fort Sumter a political necessity. He was soon apprised, political necessity. He was soon apprised, predecessor lowever, that the treason of his predecessor ad conningly devised for him the most serious portification that could be inflicted, and that he had presented to him the alternative of peror promptly to withdraw them, and ignominirebels. To reinforce the garrison or to supply them with provisions, are equally impossible

Buchanan's final act for each additional insertion of same...

The cabinet was made in one night, when exactly the contrary course was adopted. It is vented the late congress passing a law giving asserted in this article, (which, in all proba-hilty, is a proof-sheet from a confidential New occupy and recapture the public forts and York paper), that if the president desired to arsenals, and he designedly left Fort Sumter in excite and medden the whole North to a war a position which renders relief physically imof extermination against slavery, and in faof the sound of the state of the the South, he had only to resolve that Major naval force greater than we can command; Anderson and his garrison at Fort Sumter and he and his myrmidous now exultingly and should perish, as it appears was well known tauntingly say to the Republican president, would have to be the case. Major Anderson "Do your worst. We have designedly with and his men were to be used as fuel, to be held from you the means of relieving and holdthrows in to kindle the flames of fanaticism, ing Fort Sumler, and we invite you to the and force the northern people into a united pleasing alternative of permitting Anderson war, which would give the abolition leaders and his command to starve within fifteen days, absolute control over the Government and or of ignominiously abandoning it to a nest of country. What must be the feelings of the traitors and rebels whom we have nursed into

Such are the simple facts of the case as they out this policy of exciting the whole northern are presented to the new president upon his assuming the reins of government; and we speak advisedly and from knowledge when we say, has been occupied with the disposal of offices, into the bands of the Secessionists, as is four-fifths of all the hours spent in consultation charged in the article, then Major Anderson by the cabinet have been devoted to the conmust have been a party to the treason; and if sideration of the all-important question-how ne informed the new president, on the 4th of to save Fort Sumter and avert from the govern-March, as is said to be the case, that he could ment the dishonor of abandoning it to the misnot held the fort, then he acted out his part | erable traitors who for months have been in pel them to evacuate the fortress, or to use the military and naval chiefs at Washington, bave arrison as victims, to be slaughtered on the been consulted; every plan which military sciunboly alter of blind fanaticism and mad am- ence could conceive or military daring suggest, bus been attentively considered and maturely

I know the fact from Mr. Lincoln's most inweighed, wi his hope at least that the work of timate friend and accredited agent, Mr. Lamon, the traitor Buchanan was not so complete as he (Mr. Lamon) actually wrote me after his | Fort Sumter cannot be relieved because of the return to Washington, that he would be back treason of the late administration; and Major n in a few days to aid in that purpose. Major Anderson and his command most perish by Anderson was induced to expect the same thing, as his notes to me prove. I know the fact that Mr. Fox, of the U. taining permission from me, upon the express | the sacribce of a hundred of gallant men to the go rances of a former gallant associate in treason of thieves and rebels, have been grate-the navy, to visit Major Anderson "for pacific ful to their countrymen? But, says the indigpurposes," planned the pretended attempt to nant yet thoughtless patriot, "Think of the to relieve and reinforce the garrison by a fleet, hamiliation and dishonor of abandoning Sumter and that Major Anderson protested against it. to the rebels ! We do think of it, and weep now believe that it was all a scheme, and tears of blood over the humiliation thus brought that Fox's disgraceful expedition was gotten upon the country by the traitor president who up, in concert with Mr. Lincoln, merely to de-lude the northern public into the belief that consummated treason. And we are assured, consummated treason. And we are assured, they intended to sustain and protect Major too, and do not doubt the truth of the assur-Anderson, when, in fact, according to the ar- ance, that when Abraham Lincoln was comticle now published for the first time, they de-cided to do no such thing, and acted with the most humiliating concession to successful treadeliberate intention to let the garrison period, won, he did not attempt to suppress the sorrow that they might thereby excite the North and rouse them to unite in this unholy and unnatural war, by which the despirate and profiting ate leasers of an infuriated and lawless party might gratify their vengeance and just of power over the ruins of their country, and amid the blind passions of a middened people.

The document now published, and the peculiar circumstances, show the barest and most information to let the garrison prince, the displacement of the properties.
